

Enechukwu Chibuike

WEB DEVELOPER

Professional Summary

I am a dedicated Web Developer and Instructor, specializing in front-end development and teaching. Over the past 12 months, I have successfully trained more than 100 students, helping them build strong skills in web development. I founded Night Code Class to provide web development training for night learners and actively contribute to the developer community through writing and mentoring. I am proficient in technologies like React, Next.js, JavaScript, HTML5, CSS3, and TailwindCSS, and I enjoy creating impactful web solutions.
